P-259.4

LAPSE OF GENERAL REVENUE APPROPRIATIONS: I recommend lapse of the General Revenue appropriations set out below to the State General Revenue Fund as of August 31, 1958.

Main University:

Account No.	Account Title	Amount
X-3527	Teaching Salaries Only	$112,050.00

Because of the unexpected decrease in enrollment in September 1957 below the appropriation base for Teaching Salaries Only, the University has attempted to conserve the teaching salary funds appropriated and budgeted prior to the above date.

Southwestern Medical School:

Account No.	Account Title	Amount
X-3717	General Administrative Salaries	$ 1,811.18
X-3718	Instructional Salaries	170.14
X-3719	General Operating Expenses	24,083.86
	Total	$ 26,065.18

Dental Branch:

Account No.	Account Title	Amount
U-1788	General Operating Expenses	$ 275.51
U-1789	Constructing and Equipping Buildings and Other Permanent Improvements	110.41
W-1033	General Operating Expenses	3,489.42
W-1034	Constructing and Equipping Building and Other Permanent Improvements	7,836.19
X-3697	All Other General Administrative Salaries	42,940.23
X-3698	Instructional Salaries	243,019.08
X-3699	General Operating Expenses	90,959.29
	Total	$388,630.13

The lapse at the Dental Branch is the result of a decision to use local funds for payrolls for the months of June, July, and August, 1958, thereby creating a substantial saving in legislative appropriations effective August 31, 1958.

The anticipated lapse at Texas Western College in teaching salaries for 1957-58 will approximate $40,000.

OUT-OF-STATE TRIP: I recommend approval of the following out-of-state trip:

Mr. Hulon Black, Executive Director, University Development Board, to go to New Orleans, Louisiana, on or about January 27-29, 1959, for conferences relating to the Development Board's procedures and over-all program and to common problems of major universities in the matter of university development, expenses to be paid from travel funds of the Development Board
