ODOP MISSION STATEMENT

The University of Texas System Office of the Director of Police (ODOP) is charged with the responsibility of protecting the life and property of individuals who comprise the student body, faculty, and staff of The University of Texas System community.

- To oversee and guide the delivery of police services
- To train, develop, and mentor
- To set the national standard for law enforcement at America's educational institutions
- To always respect the principal purpose for a university: to educate our young people in a safe and secure environment
- To operate in every location as a full-service law enforcement agency
- To rely on the standards of national and state law enforcement accreditation, model policies and evidence-based best practices
- To set the expectation that our statutory obligations as peace officers shall be fulfilled and executed
- To identify emerging trends in public safety
- To support the institutions' law enforcement agencies with rapidly deployable special assets, advisors and resources
- To continually advance the science and delivery of police training and education
- To provide advice, counsel, and guidance to institution police chiefs and their staffs
- To foster the fullest cooperation, communication, and coordination between
  - the Director of Police and the institution chiefs
  - To continually improve the quality of candidates chosen for selection as police officers
